

ANGELA A. ASHBURN,
Plaintiff,
vs.
JO ANNE B. BARNHART,
Commissioner of Social Security,
Defendant.

This matter is before the Court on Defendant's motion to reverse and remand this Social Security disability case pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).¹ Following a hearing on Plaintiff's application for supplemental security income, an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that Plaintiff was not disabled. The decision of the ALJ became the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, and Plaintiff sought judicial review of the adverse ruling.

The Commissioner now states that agency counsel asked the Appeals Council of the Social Security Administration to reconsider the Commissioner's decision, and that upon review the Appeals Council determined that remand was appropriate for further consideration of Plaintiff's claims. The Commissioner asserts that upon remand by the Court, the Appeals Counsel will remand the case to the ALJ with directions to reevaluate the credibility of Plaintiff and her mother, reevaluate Plaintiff's mental residual functional capacity, and if necessary, obtain medical and/or vocational expert testimony. Counsel for Plaintiff has informed the Court that Plaintiff has no objection to the Commissioner's request.

Sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) provides that upon judicial review, "[t]he court shall have power to enter, upon the pleadings and transcript of the record, a judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, with or without remanding the cause for a rehearing." The Court concludes that the Commissioner's motion should be granted in this case.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's motion to reverse and remand the case is GRANTED. [Doc. #17]

A Judgment shall accompany this Memorandum and Order.
